

Immediate temporary-to-hire Lab Technician Opportunity in Cedar Rapids

- Conduct quality lab tests which may include pH, moisture, color, IR and other chemical and physical measurements.
- Support projects involving product research & development, sanitation, and regulatory needs.
- Communicate with QA staff and production management & line workers.
- Perform line checks throughout production from incoming materials to finish product. Verify accuracy of control devices and measuring units. Perform visual inspections of raw materials and finished products.
- Collect samples for environmental monitoring.
- Data collection related to HACCP and regulatory guidelines. Generate Certificate of Analysis forms for products.
- Communicate any production problems or products that are out of specification.
- Troubleshoot any product defects.
- Maintain and organize retain samples

Qualifications:

BS/BA Food Science, Microbiology, Biology, Chemistry, other related science discipline. Previous food industry or quality assurance experience preferred, but will train. Must have excellent attendance, be detail-oriented, self motivated, and work well independently. Excellent communication skills required and must have a basic understanding of science especially pertaining to food production and GMPs. Must have computer proficiency with MS Word and Excel. SAP and/or SPC experience a plus.

Benefits & Rewards:

*Highly Competitive Salary

*Complete benefits including medical with premium reduction after 8 weeks, dental, short-term disability, life insurance, 401(k) plan

*Paid Holidays

*Appreciation bonuses and More!!

To Apply:

Email resume, apply online, or call

desmoines@labsupport.com

www.labsupport.com

PH: 515.440.6447