LOGICAL APPROACH TO WINE AND FOOD

Dr. Bob Noyes, IFT
Distinguished Lecturer

Dr. Bob Noyes, Professor Emeritus of Food Science, taught in the Food Science and Nutrition Department at Cal Poly for 28 years retiring six years ago. His wine related efforts at Cal Poly included teaching two classes, one on the commercial production of wine and beer and another on the sensory evaluation and enjoyment of wine.

Dr. Noyes received his Ph.D. in Food Science at the University of Georgia and is a retired Lieutenant Colonel in the Army Reserves. He has served on the executive committee of the Institute of Food Technologists, is Past President of Phi Tau Sigma, and was elected a Fellow of the Institute in 2003. He has been an IFT Distinguished Lecturer since 2001 and is currently on the IFT Foundation Board.

Dr. Noyes enjoys helping others learn about the wonderful world of wine.

MESSAGE FROM THE CHAIR

Jeff Clawson

Greetings,

We had a fun scholarship night last month – thank you to all who attended.

This month we are meeting at the Old Spaghetti Factory in Portland. Dr. Bob Noyes is our speaker for this coming meeting. Anyone who has attended his presentation on wine appreciation will tell you how much fun and informative it is. Please plan on attending, it will be a great night to network and taste some wine. Note that dinner will be at 7:30 after Dr. Noyes talk.

If you haven't noticed, the section is planning more meetings along the I-5 corridor and closer to Portland. We are also keeping the registration of each meeting at $25. We hope this results in greater attendance at the meetings this year.

Drop me an email if you have suggestions or issues with the way the section is running this year. I would be glad to bring your concerns before the Executive Committee. jeff.clawson@oregonstate.edu

Cheers

Jeff Clawson
OSIFT Chair

IFT accepts and adopts the concept of diversity which views society as a mixture of all backgrounds, each with a unique contribution. IFT seeks to retain and celebrate individual differences and therefore will not discriminate, based on race, color, gender, sexual orientation, age religion, national origin, disability, or veteran status.

The Oregon Section Institute of Food Technologists Newsletter is published eight times each year (Sept-May), as a service to its members.

Greetings from your Membership Chair!

Attention Oregon Regional Associate Members:

Your dues are valid January through December each year. Please request an updated membership form from me, as dues are now $30 per year cgbrown5@comcast.net. Old forms will not be accepted this year.

National Members:

If your membership is due by the end of the year, IFT is offering an incentive for you to renew early. Renew your membership before December 3rd, and IFT will send you a USB flash drive and enter you into a drawing for one of five iPod Nanos. It's easy to renew on line, just go to www.ift.org. Remember to add the Oregon Section to your membership fee.

Hope to see you at a meeting and happy fall.
